

Frances Lewin

Research Student in the Department of Psychology & Human Development

UCL Institute of Education, London

07519 587 966

lewinfrances@gmail.com

Professional Appointments

- 2001 – present Freelance Interpreter
Specialising in education, mental health and workplace interpreting
- 2001 – present University College London
Tutor on the Summer Course in English Phonetics
- 2011 – 1 term University of York
Guest Lecturer for the Investigating Another Language (BSL) module
- 2009 – 2012 Middlesex University
Visiting Lecturer on their Language & Linguistics programmes
- 2007 – 2008 In-house Interpreter
BBC SeeHear

Education

- 2017 to present PhD in the Department of Psychology & Human Development
University College London
- 2007 MRes Speech Language & Cognition
University College London
- 2005 M.A. in Linguistics
University College London
- 2001 Postgraduate Diploma in BSL / English Interpreting
University of Central Lancashire
- 1997 B.A. (Hons) Linguistics & Language Studies
York St. John University

Additional Activities

Peer Mentor

IoE Doctoral Community Mentor-Mentee Programme

Member of the Disabled Students' Network

UCL Students' Union